DAVID L. LEVINE

With more than 30 years of experience in hotel and resort development, real estate investment, management, acquisitions, consolidation, integration, travel and technology, David Levine has played a key role in the hospitality, leisure, entertainment, travel and related technology industries. Today, Mr. Levine devotes his time to new development opportunities and serves on the boards of both corporate and charitable organizations encompassing various industries.

Previously, Mr. Levine was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer as well as the vision and driving force behind ResortQuest International (NYSE: RZT), the first branded company providing vacation rental, property management, and real estate services in over 50 premier resort destinations throughout North America and Hawaii, and led the company into becoming the leading brand name in the industry. ResortQuest's initial public offering was in May 1998, when the company rolled up 10 operating companies and one technology provider. During his tenure, ResortQuest grew to 32 integrated companies operating in 51 resort locations.

Mr. Levine joined the company prior to its IPO in May 1998 as President and Chief Operating Officer and was elected Chief Executive Officer in December 1999 and Chairman in May 2000. In these roles, he was responsible for planning and implementing a strategic business direction for the company, with focus on its future growth, acquisitions, branding, integration, e-commerce, and increasing shareholder wealth.

Prior to launching ResortQuest in May 1998, Mr. Levine served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Equity Inns, Inc. (NYSE listed ENN), a real estate investment trust (REIT), which specialized in lodging-related acquisitions, and grew the portfolio from eight to over 100 properties throughout the United States. Concurrently, he was President and Chief Operating Officer of Trust Management, Inc., which operated Equity Inns properties, as well as others, for private owners and financial institutions. Trust Management offered pre-opening services, as well as a full array of management services. He also served as president of North American Hospitality, Inc., a hotel ownership, management and consulting company which he formed in 1985.

Mr. Levine's comprehensive hospitality, leisure, entertainment and real estate experience also includes several senior marketing and operations management positions with the international and domestic divisions of Bass Hotels & Resorts (formerly Holiday Inns, Inc.), Intercontinental Hotels Corporation, and the E. F. MacDonald Incentive Travel Company.

Previously, Mr. Levine held the following Directorships:

Publicly traded corporations:

Chairman of the Board of a domestic development and lodging company

Chairman of the Board of an international telecom and technology solutions company

Privately held corporation Board positions:

Director of a high end children's toys, books and clothes chain

Currently serves as:

Advisory Director of Seitlin Insurance and Advisory Services, Inc.

Advisory Director of Vision Films, Inc.

Previous Organizations:

Director and Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Memphis Development Foundation

Director and Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Historic Orpheum Theatre

Regional Director of the United States Ski and Snowboard Foundation

Member of the New York Hospitality Council

Member of the Presidents Council of Promus Hotels

Visiting Professor at Michigan State University, School of Business
