David Andrews Bio

David Andrews graduated from Hillcrest High School and attended Memphis State University majoring in marketing. Mr. Andrews grew up in the auto business and is a third generation auto dealer. He began his own auto business in 1975 and in 1986 founded City Auto Sales on Union Avenue. Two years later City Auto Sales moved to Elmore Road off Covington Pike, which is its present location. Under his leadership, City Auto Sales has grown to be the largest independent pre-owned auto dealer in the South.

David learned early on that this business must be conducted with the support of many friends and associates who share the excitement and difficulty of operating a successful business. He has a variety of other business interests, mostly revolving around the automobile business. David is active in his church, the Boy Scouts of America and The Dream Factory.
