CITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, under the leadership of Councilwomen Janis Fullilove the proposal of creating a part-time classification was introduced to the Memphis City Council; and

WHEREAS, it is beneficial to City Government to create a regular, part-time classification to reduce the operating costs of City Government and to establish more efficient employment practices; and

WHEREAS, a decrease in turnover and an increase in productivity will result from the establishment of a regular, part-time classification; and

WHEREAS, benchmark surveys indicate the creation of a part-time classification will be consistent with peer cities and other local municipalities.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Memphis City Council acknowledges and supports the creation of a regular, part-time classification recognizing the potential cost savings and the efficiencies in employment practices as an overall benefit to City of Memphis Government operations.
