MARK YATES

Mr. Yates has served in multiple roles as a Senior Banker and Executive.

For First Horizon National Corporation Mr. Yates performed several roles as a Senior Vice President including Securitization Process Manager coordinating the corporation's capital raising efforts by managing the sale of whole loans and securitizing home equity lines of credit (HELOC's).

Prior to that role, Mr. Yates served as Investor Relations Officer ("IRO") where he managed the corporation's equity and debt communications with equity analysts, institutional investors, and rating agencies. Additionally he coordinated all quarterly communications, conference calls, earnings releases, 10-Q's and Annual Reports for the company. On a day-to-day basis he was responsible for monitoring all trading statistics in FHN's stock on the NYSE including short positions, exercised options and matching trades of major institutional buyers and sellers.

Previously, Mr. Yates worked as a SVP within First Horizon's FTN Financial Capital Markets division. His duties there included managing the underwriting of fixed income securities for major municipalities nationwide. Over his career, Mr. Yates has raised over $1.0 billion for his clients. His clients have included the Memphis and Shelby County Public Building Authority ("PBA") where he acted as Financial Advisor to coordinate the $275.0 million financing of the FedEx Forum. Additionally, he worked on the finance team that brought AutoZone Park's financing to market. His comprehensive expertise in public finance covers the full landscape of public benefit projects including airports, general obligation bonds, housing, project finance, utilities, arenas and stadiums.

Prior to joining FTN Financial Capital Markets, Mr. Yates served as a Vice President and investment banker at Morgan Keegan & Company in Memphis.

Before Morgan Keegan, Mr. Yates was Chief of Staff to U.S. Representative Harold Ford, Jr. In that role, he was responsible for managing both Capitol Hill and district offices, developing tactical and strategic political and policy initiatives, and coordinating congressional events.

Prior to his post in the House, he spent twelve years in the commercial banking division of First Tennessee Bank as a Vice President.

Mr. Yates has also served as Chairman of the Shelby County Democratic Party.

Mr. Yates currently holds both general and principal securities licenses.

He is married and has two daughters and currently resides in Memphis, Tennessee.

Mr. Yates holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics with a finance specialization from Howard University and an Executive Management of Business degree from the Owen Graduate School of Management at Vanderbilt University.
